

Inspiring Americans to appreciate America.

Introduction • STEFAN KOEHLER (pronounced Kohler)

Stefan Koehler is a recent immigrant from Germany. He was an eyewitness to the horrors of life under East Germany's communist dictatorship and now is thankful and proud to live in America, the country of his dreams. His goal is to encourage Americans to appreciate and honor their great nation.

Stefan enjoys a successful career in biotechnology business development. Recently, a business magazine chose him as one of the 40 under 40 emerging leaders in the greater Madison, Wisconsin, area.

In 2005, he was a top ten finalist in the World Championship of Public Speaking held by Toastmasters International.

Stefan will share his authentic and uplifting enthusiasm for America and remind us that we cannot take our freedom for granted.
